

Red Sleeping Beauty

Mi Amor

Shelflife presents the new smash hit single “Mi Amor” b/w “Breaking Up Is Easy (Invisible Twin remix)” from Red Sleeping Beauty. Available world-wide March 25th on limited white vinyl and digital formats. “Mi Amor” is the band’s first ever song with a chorus sung entirely in Spanish.

Red Sleeping Beauty formed in Stockholm in 1989 by singer Kristina Borg, singer/guitarist Niklas Angergård (Acid House Kings), guitarist Mikael Matsson (The Shermans), and bassist Carl-Johan Näsström. They made a huge impact on the international indiepop scene with two fantastic albums and a series of singles and EPs. Their first release was in 1992 with EP Pop Sounds (Marsh Marigold), followed by four 7”s all on different pop labels (Somersault, Motorway, Grimsey, and Sunday) before returning to Marsh-Marigold for the first full length Bedroom. They then signed to the legendary Siesta Records to release their fifth single Sick & Tired, their second album Soundtrack, and a compilation of singles. In 2014, the band reunited in the studio to record “Just For Fun,” an Alpaca Sports cover, as well as “Merry Christmas, Marie” as a special holiday track. In 2015, pop fans rejoiced with their spectacular return to vinyl with the “Always” 7” on Shelflife.

The band are now working to complete the new album which will be released in the summer on Shelflife and Labrador Records. They will also be playing at the Madrid Popfest in March.
